Dear Friends,

At a time when unprecedented events are creating uncertainty for us all, Clothes To Kids of Denver (CTKD) continues to serve our communities' most vulnerable children and youth. In this, our 2019 Annual Report, we highlight the positive impact our services have made throughout the Denver metropolitan area, and we honor those whose generosity has made these services possible.

CTKD's mission is to provide free clothing to students from low-income or in-crisis families in a welcoming, store-like setting. Research shows that when children and youth have appropriate and fashionable clothing to wear, it increases their confidence and self-esteem, and helps them fit in with their peers and excel in school and beyond.

In 2019, CTKD distributed 10,356 school wardrobes, free of charge, and nearly all of our shoppers (94%) selected a complete 22- or 23-piece wardrobe – our highest percentage ever! Additionally, we distributed 30,733 pounds of “extras” to our shoppers, including accessories, school supplies and books.

Clothing donations received during the year included 71,419 pairs of new socks and underwear. And the volunteers who sort and tag clothing and who act as personal shoppers for our students and families served an astonishing 11,280 hours, our highest number in a single year.

While we are honored to share and celebrate these significant achievements, CTKD remains keenly aware of the critical needs of students in the 11-county metropolitan area we serve and the degree to which growing unemployment may increase those needs in the months ahead.

Our student shoppers experience some of the most difficult circumstances imaginable: poverty, parental unemployment, homelessness, recent immigration, displacement and home removal. The uncertainty we currently face is their reality every day.

Yet we see remarkable resilience and hope among the children, youth and families we serve, and equally remarkable commitment among our generous donors, volunteers, community partners, board members and staff. With your continued help and support, CTKD has begun its second decade stronger than ever, and we stand ready to meet whatever new challenges lie ahead.

With sincere gratitude,

Valerie Lunka
