

The three-bedroom bungalow at The Lodge at Kukui'ula on Kaua'i offers luxurious accommodations and exclusive access to the award-winning private club facilities and amenities of The Club at Kukui'ula, including the 18-hole Tom Weiskopf designed golf course, sprawling Hi'ilani spa and wellness complex, 10-acre organic farm, club house facilities, two restaurants and a complex of saline pools.

Situated walking distance from The Club at Kukui'ula, Bungalow 14 allows for easy island living with golf course and ocean views. A spacious open floor plan features a chef's kitchen in the heart of the home with counter seating for six and a large living room just adjacent. The lanai features dining seating for eight, so there's plenty of room for everyone in your party. The high ceilings, ample windows and vibrant décor allow for maximum island vibes throughout the home. All three bedrooms connect to the main living space and have their own private en-suite bathrooms. The back lanai opens onto a comfortable seating arrangement.

The primary bedroom features a king bed, en-suite bathroom with deep soaking tub, indoor shower, lighted double vanity and a pass through to a private lava rock outdoor shower. The second bedroom has a king bed, vanity and indoor shower. The third bedroom also has an indoor private bath and shower as well as two twin beds that can be converted into a king bed for maximum flexibility. The third bedroom also has a custom loft with mattress so the room can accommodate 3 people – 7 for the bungalow in total.

Guests have exclusive access to The Club at Kukui'ula private facility amenities including:

- Hi'ilani Spa
- The 18-hole Tom-Weiskopf golf course
- Tennis & Pickle Ball Courts
- Huaka'i Outfitters – our adventure concierge
- The Farm
- 'Umeke Kitchen + Bar and the Makai Grill + Bar
- The Makai Poo

